The queue could rival
any club night.

Then it lit up.

WHEN PURIM TOOK OVER THE HALL

It started with a queue.
A long one.
We noticed.
It was our first Purim at Alma — parents,
children, costumes, all in one room.

But once inside, something shifted.

It worked.

Fifty-six families came through the doors.
And for the first time, the evening didn't sit on the shoulders of a few.

Every year group showed up.
Every half hour, volunteers stepped in and out — replacing one another, keeping things moving.

Half an hour. That was all it took.

At the braiding station, what was meant to be a rotation didn't quite happen.
Two volunteers simply stayed — working side by side, taking more children as the line grew.

Not asked. Just given.

And because of all of that, everything kept going.

The dance floor filled. Kids dancing. Parents staying. And in between, moments you might have missed if you weren't looking.

Thank You — For Partying With Us

What a turnout. 56 families came together — and together, we raised £1,590 for our community. Thank you to everyone who showed up, and to those who gave their time to make it happen. More is already on the way.

Shop With Meaning

The Bakery is growing.

New this week:

Bulka bread, cinnamon rugelach, and marble cake.

Alongside your usual favourites — challah, chocolate rugelach, bagels and more.

Anything available on the JustBaked site can be added to our shop. All products are selected with our sesame and nut-free school policy in mind.

If there's something you usually buy elsewhere and it's available through the JustBaked site, let us know and we'll add it:
