Anti Bullying Week at Alma

By Amitai and Carla

Alma primary has celebrated Anti-Bullying week by wearing odd socks / tights! Anti bullying week is when you say lovely things to each other.

We have had some strips of paper that said some lovely comments about each other that we passed on to each other.

We had someone that came in to talk to us a said it's not kind to bully each other and played games and he taught us all the kinds of bullying :

1.cyber bullying 2.verbal bullying 3.physical bullying 4. social bullying!

We also learned that if you say rude things to each other and say sorry the things that you said it doesn't go away.

Happy anti bullying week!

By Ava and Blu

Overview of the film:

Best part: Philip runs into building on fire to save Zendaya.

Best song: Rewrite the stars
We would recommend this movie for lovers of the circus.

Songs review:

The greatest show:

I think it's quite entertaining when you watch it.

A million dreams:

I think that a million dreams is very romantic.

Come Alive:

I think it's very catchy

The Other Side:

It's quite convincing and it makes you know the story

Never Enough:

It's quite dramatic, despite the fact that it's quite a depressing song to sing

This Is Me:

It makes people think that it doesn't matter what they look like

From Now On:

It's a wonderful song, and in spite of it being very sad, it just makes you smile when they start singing, 'and we will come back home!'

It's OK. But I especially like most of its songs.

I'd say it's quite a emotional film, with lots of drama.

Veggie Pancake Recipe by Netanya Lampel

By Annabel and Zach

Mrs Fine's favourite recipe for 'sneaking in' veggies!

Ingredients:

1 egg

1/3 cup flour

1/2 cup cooked vegetable

1/2 tsp baking powder

1/4 cup milk

2 tbsp unsalted butter melted

Method:

1. Mash the sweet potato/butternut/pumpkin in a bowl

and mix with the egg.

2. Stir in the flour and add the baking powder.

3. Add up to 1/3 cup milk, stirring stir in 1 tbsp margarine.

4. The mixture should have the consistency of a thick lumpy sauce.

5. Place non-stick pan on stove and add 1/2 tsp margarine to pan.

6. Spoon the batter into pan and cook until see bubbles rise to surface of the pancakes and pop, approximately 1-2 mins

7. Using a spatula flip the pancakes over and cook on other side 1-2 mins

Remove pancake when done on both sides

Note: I make the pancakes about 1cm thick and about 10cm diameter... basically look like fritters afterwards
